DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 2-11 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected Species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on January 22, 2008. Furthermore, claim 11 that is cited as reads on Species III in the restriction dated December 18, 2007, has been withdrawn for being depended on the non-elected claim 2.
2. Applicant's election with traverse of Species III in the reply filed on January 22, 2008 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that a search for the elected Species would necessarily entail a search for the non-elected Species. This is not found persuasive because these species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 and Applicant is required to elect a single species.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 14-16 combines description of the apparatus with description of method for using the apparatus and violates second paragraph of 35 USC 112 (see MPEP 2173.05(p)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claims 14-16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 for directed to neither a "process" nor a "machine", but rather embraces or overlaps two different statutory classes of invention set forth in 35 U.S.C. 101 which is drafted so as to set forth the classes of invention in the alternative only (see MPEP 2173.05(p)).
6. For the purpose of this Office action, the claims will be examined as best understood by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1, 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Switall as best understood by the examiner.

Switall discloses a liquid spray unit for spraying and applying liquid to a traveling body 9c in a processing machine, comprising: a spray nozzle 80 for spraying the dampening fluid; and an air flow injecting port 94 for injecting an air flow, wherein the spray nozzle and the air flow injecting port are arranged such as to inject the air flow to the liquid sprayed from said spray nozzle, from said air injecting port, and accelerate the sprayed liquid by said air flow so as to spray to the traveling body.

With respect to claims 14-16, the apparatus shown by Switall is capable of performing the method or steps recited in the claims.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following patents are cited to show the art with respect to a liquid spraying unit: Blair, Maier et al., and Fortunato et al.
